G. GEGET, HAMMOND, Editor Daily News, And Correspondent Associated Press. Newpest, March 9th, 1959.

Mr. Obadier A. Bone, for some time past connected with the editorial department of The Sun, died yesterday afternoon, at his residence in Third Avenue, near olst street. Mr. Bowe was a native of mont, and was a follow approxice to the printing business with Mr. Horace Greeley, of The Tribune. The friendship then founded lass never been interrupted, and it was through Mr. Greeley's representations of the experience and personal worth of his friend that he became, about three years ago, connected with our office. At that, and for some time previously, his gen-eral health was not good, but with slight interruptions, he was able to attend to his duties until lately, when be was seized with an intermittent fever; which, acting upon an impaired constitution, terminated fatally after a short illness.

Mr. Bowe has been connected with the American press, as printer and publisher, and in other capacities, for over thirty years. As a newspaper publisher, he was not fortunate, probably because of his want of keen business habits; his yielding grood nature in assuming responsibilities not his own; and his conscientious autrocacy of views which as in his 1900. views which, as he has often said, were in advance of the times. He was a man of riews which, as he can often said, were in advance of the times. He was a man of gonial disposition, of fine literary taste, and an ardent, indexible advocate of what he believed to be right and just. Our own short accquaint once with him inspired only feelings of esteem and respect; and we believe that all who have been associated with him regret his death, as the loss of a friend whom they esteemed and loved. He leaves a wife, to whom he was devotedly attached, and two daughters nearly grown to wentan's estate. New York Sun

In addition to his Editorial labors on The Sun, Mr. Berns has been for the greater portion of the past two years a constant contributor to the columns of this paper, (Newport Dody News.) He was our regular New York correspondent over the signature of PAMPLER; and many of our articles on general politics and foreign affairs were also from his ready pen. It is sunreely a month since we reveived from him the notices of Burns and Prescott, which were published in our columns; and in a lette accompanying them, and speaking of his connection with our paper, he said :

"The relations you and I have sustained for nearly two years past, have been such piness; but a rittle rost for my over-wear-ied sight and slender health, will not be

Little did se think that so soon he was to find the long rest of the grave. We feel his loss as that of a personal friend and we join with our brethren of The Sun in their affectionate tribute to the merits of the editor, and the sterling worth of the

A groud Guess.

In our article of last Saturday was table showing the equivalent in direct taxation of the proceed increase in rates of postage. It will be remembered that Texas alone of all the slave states stood high above the average rate for the country, and that we then suggested it as probable that this was owing to the fact of our having no crosse of that state since 1850. In our exchanges of Monday we find this confirmed as leflows:

—A State census of Texas just taken shows a population of 458,620, against 212,492 in the year 1860, when love had but 102,000, though she now has over out of the North by a rate of postage increased to five cents.

COMMODOR. PAULDING .- The manner in which this officer has been trented by the Administration is most disgraceful. His prompt and decisive notion gove a death along to finisterism, and for it he received the thanks of every person opposed to piratical expeditions. He also did much to the trained expectations. He also did much to restore our somewhat damaged mational honor. For doing his duly conscientiously, a weak and unserruptional Executive allowed him to be recalled and publicly consured by not within him mether company. and to be constant and publicly consured by not giving him another command. The persecution unit not end here. When suits were brought against the Commodore by the filibusier interest, the Government refused to sustain has in any way. The least it could do would be to pay the expenses he has incorred in defending them; but whe: Mr. Callyw offered as a few lands. whe : Mr. Collax offered an amendment on may that these expenses should be paid the Chair ruled him out of order, and a rity of test sustained the decision. here Pausding can therefore expect

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

To-day being the first day of Lent, mmo ply called Ash Wednesday, there will be service in all the Episoopal Churchse of the city in the morning; and in Zion and Immanuel in the evening also.

We understand that an official reort in relation to the recent Fair of the Aquidneck Engine Company will be forthcoming in a few days.

A SAD CASE. -A few mornings since, a little girl entered the store of one of our citizens and purchased some trifling article amounting to one cent, tendering a five her were entirely without food, and the four cents remaining was to purchase some bones for a soup. Her father is a drunkard.

Consistency.

One of the powers and influences of the public press lies in its consistency and uni-formity of principle. Quadlibet says formity of principle. Quodlibet says "Men change and principles change, but majorities never change," and this would seem to be the faith which controls some of the Solons at the head of a few of the daily journals in the country: We read the following paragraph in the New York Herald a few days since, and give it to our readers to show the wonderful consistency of its columns :—

"When the Black Republicans come in to power the negro will assume social and political status with the white. He shall be equally privileged to drink the bad whisk; in the Washington hotels—he shall be permitted to lobby with Matteson & Co. and be a welcome guest at the receptions of the Cabinet Miniaters. He shall have his chare of the foreign missions-he shall go to Dahomey or Hayti or Timbucto. Then the African potentiates will send us apecial ambassadors, with long suites and longer heels. Then will cologne and jockey club and boquet de millefleurs, and all the odorous productions of the Rue Vivienne and the Rue Honore and the Boulevard des Italiens, be in such double demand that the rates of duties will be lowered, to harmonize with the excessive importation."

What a sudding change has come over the principles of that journal. It is a noto-rious fact that the Herald did more then any other paper in or cut of New York to elect Fremont to the Presidency in 1856. It is true, no doubt, that he got the "rocks" for his services, for it was charged upon him, and be never denied that his "price" was thirty thousand! A significant word, Judas sold his master for just thirty pieces of coin, and, if we may judge Bennett out of bis own words, as above quoted, he was willing to sell his country for the same number of thousands. Where is the differential the heavest way here is the differential the heavest way here. ference in the honesty and integrity of these

As soon as Fremunt was defeated, and Mr. Buchanan fairly under way, this same consistent jewel of an editor turns round and supports the latter, and still does so against nearly all the democratic papers in the country, for very few are now left to do him homage. How much he received for this we do not know. In some of the inby the incoming Congress, no doubt some awful disclosures will take place, and it may then turn up what sum induced modern Janus to "jump Jim Crow" so nimbly. We have no objection to any paper supporting any body they choose, but we do object to so bold faced impudence and inconsistency as the New York Herald is constantly guilty of.

A Pennsylvanian, writing from Landon to the Philadelphia North American, pre-ignize the following facts in regard to the sylvania of some six per cent. bonds about the years 1843 and 1846. He says:

cash. We could not do it, and we issued bonds bearing six per cent. interest, and compelled the halders of our coupons to take these six per cent, bonds as payment or their interest. Then when these became due, in three years or the realiouts, we refused to pay them in cash, and compelled our creditors to take a five per cent. bond our creators to take a five per cent, bond in place of the six, and instead of even paying six per cent, interest on these short bonds, as we promised, we actually paid only four and three-quarters.

Now, does any man believe that the honest Pennsylvanians would sauction this if they know the facts? There is not one code of morals for judyidada and another code of morals and code of the code of the

The writer streamonsly urges upon Penusylvania the policy of making amends at once for the course which has so greatly damaged the reputation of the State.
